

Biographical Information

Deacon Gerald Zukauckas
Vice President of Finance and Chief Financial Officer
EWTN Global Catholic Network

As Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Deacon Gerald Zukauckas is responsible for all financial reporting, accounting, payroll, and financial stewardship of all EWTN's and EWTN's affiliates assets. He was a partner or director with several major Big 6 accounting firms, in both the United States and the United Kingdom, where he lived and worked for nearly 20 years with his wife, Sharon. He also served as the Tax Director of Emory University in Atlanta and was the Parish Administrator of Saint Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church in Smyrna, Georgia. Ordained a permanent deacon in February 2010 by Archbishop Wilton Gregory, Deacon Gerald served several years at the Cathedral of Christ the King in Atlanta before continuing his diaconate ministry at the Cathedral of Saint Paul in Birmingham, Ala.

Deacon Gerald has a wide range of tax, accounting, human resource, and business consulting experience. His technical skills include expertise in international tax, compensation, international human resource policy, process development and tax services for high net worth individuals, as well as not-for-profit accounting and financial reporting skills. He has led and built several teams, in both the United Kingdom and the United States, and he has strategically implemented marketing and business development plans for the organizations he served.

Deacon Gerald has testified before the Congressional House Ways and Means Committee on issues relating to Americans abroad. He is a Certified Public Accountant and received his Bachelor's degree, with honors, from the Pennsylvania State University.
